Pilot Club Meets Tonite For Dinner

Sam Levy, prominent civic leader of Torrance, will be the guest speaker of the Pilot club of Torrance tonight at its regular October dinner meeting at the Fish Shanty. Sam Levy will address the members and other guests on "The Role of the Service Club in the Community."

The local Pilot club is celebrating the founding of its international organization at Macon, Georgia, on October 18, 1921, with a charter membership of 40. Since that time Pilot International, which is one of the five international classified civic and service organizations for executive business and professional women, has grown to a total membership of some 11,000 made up of 390 clubs in seven countries.

The local club, which was chartered last year, is one of 20 clubs in the State of California which have been organized within the last few years. Also join-

The affair will include a delightful luncheon at 12:30 noon-time.

Fashions to be shown will be from the Sport shop, with owner Joyce Brown serving as fashion coordinator.

President Mrs. L. A. McCoy of the seniors and President Mrs. James K. Lees of the juniors club are both stressing their administration theme of working "Side by Side."

The designated committee in charge are Mmes. Jerry Wood, George Blahnk, C. L. Briner, James Lees, J. T. Bay, Jack Warnock, R. V. Russell, H. G. Stephens, B. Bryan and R. J. Setting.

The committee in charge of tickets are Mmes. William Rogers, J. P. Bay, D. J. Thomsen and J. A. Tweedy.

ing the Pilots of Torrance in celebrating this occasion will be members of other women's service clubs in the area.

Pilot International's "Women of Service" took top honors in 1956 in the awards of the "Woman's Home Companion" magazine, which each year honors 10 clubwomen and 250 clubs which have made contributions of exceptional importance to their communities. Mrs. Freda
